

DAILY PRACTICE: DAY 20260630 - FITNESS TRENDS, PUBLIC HEALTH CAMPAIGNS, MODERN NUTRITION

(Level: Reading B1 - Writing A1)

Student Name:

Time Allowed: 50 mins

WARM-UP / KHỞI ĐỘNG

Trả lời ngắn gọn các câu hỏi sau bằng tiếng Việt hoặc tiếng Anh để bắt đầu bài học:

1. Bạn có thường xuyên tập thể dục không? Lợi ích lớn nhất của việc này đối với sức khỏe là gì? (How often do you exercise? What is its biggest health benefit?)
2. Bạn nghĩ một người lười biếng có thể duy trì lối sống lành mạnh không? Bằng cách nào? (Can a lazy person maintain a healthy lifestyle?)
3. Bạn thích tham gia hoạt động ngoài trời hay đi tập gym hơn? Tại sao? (Do you prefer outdoor activities or going to the gym? Why?)

I. READING PASSAGE

Exercise for the Lazy: Finding the Minimum for Good Health

Many people start the year with a New Year's resolution to get fit. They often promise themselves that they will join a gym or start a structured exercise program, such as swimming or running. However, after a few weeks, many of these promises are broken. People find that they lack the motivation to keep going, or they are simply too busy.

Is it possible to stay healthy without doing a lot of hard work? In a recent BBC programme, Neil and Sam discussed a "lazy person's guide" to fitness. Health experts used to recommend at least thirty minutes of moderate physical activity five times a week. For many people, this feels like a big challenge. But new research suggests that even a small amount of activity can benefit your health.

For instance, studies show that short, intense bursts of movement during the day can protect your cardiovascular system. Instead of spending hours on a treadmill, you can incorporate activity into your daily routine. This strategy is sometimes called "habit stacking." For example, you can do some stretches while waiting for your coffee to brew, or take the stairs instead of the elevator.

According to government statistics, people who have a sedentary lifestyle—meaning they spend most of the day sitting at a desk or watching television—have a higher risk of heart disease. To prevent this, experts recommend setting a target of ten thousand steps a day. However, even if you do not reach this target, walking just a short distance is much better than doing nothing.

The duration of your exercise is less important than being consistent. If you exercise regularly, even for just ten minutes at a time, you will see a positive impact on your health. Finding an activity that you enjoy is the key. When exercise is fun, it does not feel like a chore, and you are more likely to make it a permanent part of your life.

Source: Adapted from BBC Learning English - "Exercise for the lazy" (February 2, 2023)

URL: https://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/english/features/6-minute-english_2023/ep-230202

II. IELTS READING QUESTIONS (13 QUESTIONS)

Questions 1–5: Choose the correct letter, A, B, C, or D, for questions 1–5.

1. What is a common problem with New Year's resolutions to get fit?
 - A. They cost too much money.
 - B. Many people stop keeping them after a short time.
 - C. They are not recommended by health experts.
 - D. They require special training.
2. What was the traditional weekly exercise recommendation?
 - A. Ten minutes of walking every day.
 - B. Thirty minutes of moderate activity, five times a week.
 - C. Two hours of intense running at the gym.
 - D. Only structured sports like swimming.
3. What is an example of "habit stacking" mentioned in the passage?
 - A. Running on a treadmill for an hour.
 - B. Joining a gym with a friend.
 - C. Doing stretches while waiting for coffee.
 - D. Eating a healthy meal before exercising.
4. According to the passage, a "sedentary lifestyle" is one where a person:
 - A. exercises too intensely.
 - B. spends a lot of time sitting down.
 - C. walks more than ten thousand steps a day.
 - D. only eats fast food.
5. What can be inferred about the author's view on exercise? (*)
 - A. People must join a gym to achieve good physical health.
 - B. Walking is only useful if you reach ten thousand steps daily.
 - C. Small, enjoyable daily movements are more sustainable than intense gym programs.
 - D. Modern office workers should not watch television after work.

Questions 6–9: Complete the sentences below. Choose NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS from the passage for each answer.

6. A common way that people try to get fit is by starting a _____ exercise program.
7. Short and intense movements are shown to be beneficial for a person's _____ system.
8. The practice of doing stretches while waiting for coffee is an example of a strategy called _____.
9. The key to making exercise a permanent part of your life is to find a physical activity that you _____ (*).

Questions 10–13: Do the following statements agree with the information given in the reading passage? Write:

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| TRUE | if the statement agrees with the information |
| FALSE | if the statement contradicts the information |
| NOT GIVEN | if there is no information on this |

10. Most people who make a New Year's resolution to exercise continue for the whole year.
11. Neil and Sam are health experts who designed the new exercise guidelines.
12. Setting a goal of ten thousand steps a day is recommended by experts to prevent heart disease.
13. Research shows that short sessions of exercise are more effective for weight loss than running on a treadmill. (*)

III. QUESTIONS FOR GRAMMAR (30 QUESTIONS)

Questions 14–23: Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

14. If you _____ (exercise) regularly, you will feel more energetic.
15. If I _____ (have) more free time, I would join a local gym.
16. You will improve your heart health if you _____ (walk) 10,000 steps daily.
17. What _____ you _____ (do) if you had a desk job?
18. If she _____ (know) how to swim, she would go to the pool every weekend.
19. If they _____ (not/start) moving more, their health will get worse.
20. I _____ (start) a fitness program if the gym were closer to my house.
21. If you _____ (want) to prevent heart disease, you must avoid a sedentary lifestyle.
22. If he _____ (be) fit, he would run a marathon with his friends.
23. If we _____ (not/have) these new guidelines, we would still believe that 30 minutes of daily exercise is mandatory. (*)

Questions 24–33: Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verbs in brackets (Gerund -ing or Infinitive to-V).

24. Many people enjoy _____ (walk) in the local park.
25. They decided _____ (start) a new exercise routine last week.
26. It is important _____ (prevent) heart disease by staying active.
27. She avoided _____ (go) to the gym because she was too tired.
28. We are planning _____ (incorporate) more steps into our day.
29. Neil suggested _____ (use) the stairs instead of the elevator.
30. Learning _____ (swim) takes time and practice.
31. Keep _____ (exercise) regularly to see the best results.
32. He hopes _____ (reach) his target of 10,000 steps today.
33. Managing _____ (stay) healthy without spending hours at the gym is possible through habit stacking. (*)

Questions 34–43: For questions 21-25, find the single grammatical error and write the corrected sentence. For questions 26-30, combine the sentences using the instructions.

34. If you will walk every day, you will get fit.

35. If I was you, I would take the stairs instead of the elevator.
36. I decided stopping watching television and start exercising.
37. Many people choose joining a gym as a New Year's resolution.
38. If they had more motivation, they will exercise regularly.
39. She doesn't mind walking to work, but she hates to run in the rain. (*)
40. [Combine] You don't have enough motivation. You don't exercise regularly. (Use Second Conditional)
41. [Combine] I want to build a fitness habit. I attach it to my morning coffee. (Use planning + to-infinitive)
42. [Combine] We want to prevent heart disease. We take walks daily. (Use to-infinitive for purpose)
43. [Combine] You sit all day. Your health gets worse. (Use First Conditional) (*)

IV. QUESTIONS FOR WRITING (5 TASKS)

Task 1: Word Ordering (Sắp xếp từ thành câu hoàn chỉnh)

Rearrange the words to form simple sentences:

a) fit / exercise / keeps / us / .

Answer:

b) walking / health / is / good / for / .

Answer:

c) healthy / eat / food / we / must /

Answer:

Task 2: Sentence Completion (Hoàn thành câu)

Combine these sentences using "and", "but", or "because":

a) I like walking. I don't like running.

Answer:

b) He wants to stay healthy. He exercises every day.

Answer:

c) We eat fresh fruit. We drink water.

Answer:

Task 3: Habit description

Write a short paragraph describing your daily physical activity. What do you do and when?

.....

.....

.....

.....

Task 4: Describing habits/opinions

Write a short paragraph describing a healthy food or drink you like. Why is it healthy?

.....

.....

.....

.....

Task 5: Guided Email Invite (Viết email ngắn)

(*) Write a short message/email (40-50 words) to a friend, inviting them to go cycling in the park this Sunday morning. Suggest a time to meet.

To: Subject:

.....

.....

.....

.....